

Science fairs report to AGM of NZSA

Once again NZSA and Statistics New Zealand sponsored prizes for the Regional Science and Technology Fairs. There was one item of note, we received a letter of thanks from the winner at the Northland fair who mentioned that she was the grand daughter of Sir Maurice Kendall. We are following this up and hope to arrange an interview with her and write a short article for our web site and possible publicity material for a wider audience.

Alasdair Noble